We have nothing but praise for the painters who just completed our job in 5 days. Always early arrivals who worked diligently from the time they arrived until the end of the work day, and always aimed to please. Mike was an excellent crew leader who not only organized things everyday, but who also loves to work, and takes pride in what he is doing. Pat was with us for 3 days and Mamado (?) was with us for two, and both did a great job. Additionally, Alex, Christy, and Kevin Jr. were all pleasant, conscientious, and very helpful. We both feel that our entire experience was excellent.

We hired Nolan Painting for a substantial repainting of our home. My wife and I explored several other painter/painting companies before deciding on Nolan painting. We were impressed with their attention to detail, professionalism and management structure. Pre-initiation of the project Nolan contacted use frequently to advise about the schedule. We were assisted in selecting a paint palette by there paint color coordinator. On the start date, the crew headed by Milton, including Angel, Albert and Kevin arrived on time, were courteous, technically excellent, clean and careful with our home and all of our "stuff". The crew addressed every request, including repairing nail pops, cracks in the wall, etc. Nothing was left unaddressed. Each day at least one supervisor would come by to inspect the job, ensure that we were satisfied and check progress. My wife and I will use Nolan Painting again. All in all an excellent job. We would recommend Nolan Painting without reservation.

I recently hired Nolan to paint my stairwell, upstairs hallway, and three bedrooms. I live in an older Havertown home with beat up plaster walls and trim. Nolan is a little more pricey than other painters, but I am extremely picky and wanted the job to be done perfectly. The entire crew could not have been nicer. They covered all of my floors and furniture very well. All of the trim was sanded down prior to painting and looks great. They arrived on time and were finished the job in two days, which shocked me. The job leader did a walk-through with me when they were done to make sure that everything looked good. They were extremely helpful in putting off of my furniture back in place and even re-anchored my daughter's dresser to the wall. Everything was excellent!

The estimate was fair and good. I had extra repair work done too. They were organized and prompt and friendly. I had a color consult with such a nice knowledgeable woman and ended up with the absolutely best color gray. And as for the actual work, they estimated four days and it took 3-1/2 days! The work was excellent. They put all my furniture back where it belongs and the place looks beautiful! I highly recommend them!

The crew at Nolan painters did an excellent job painting a number of rooms for us. They were very professional and went the extra mile to make sure the walls were prepped perfectly before they started painting. That meant all cracks and nail holes filled, popped out nails in the walls addressed, and caulking in areas that needed it. Everything was cover with plastic and the floors protected with drop cloths. After painting some of the wall, they made sure the color was what we had envisioned and had options in case the color needed some tweaking or to be changed. This job took a number of days and at the end of each day, they cleaned up before they left so that the homeowner can assume their daily function without a mess. We have a few more rooms to be painted and will be using Nolan painters again; i guess that is the best kind of rating you can give.

We chose Nolan Painting after obtaining four separate quotes for our indoor painting job. We chose them because they presented themselves as completely professional from beginning to end. Nolan offered a color consultant who was invaluable in helping choose the right color and on the days the job was scheduled, the team was always on time. A manager visited each day to check in and see if there were any issues I or the painters had. They protect everything from damage, including covering the entire floor with a sticky-type plastic, and all furniture from top to bottom. They spent a day spackling holes and cracks and nail pops, preparing the rooms for painting. Our Nolan painters did a phenomenal job at making our rooms look as if they were brand new! We now plan to use them for the outside painting.

About three years ago, Nolan painted the outside of our stucco home. They did such a neat and thorough job of painting and cleanup, they were the first of four companies we called to quote on painting all the rooms inside our home. When their quote proved competitive, we did not hesitate to hire them. We were NOT DISAPPOINTED!! With Pete as the lead painter, Luiz as the foreman and Tiago as Field Manager, the job was as neat and thorough as we could possibly expect. The prep work on the walls and woodwork, and finish paint job, exceeded our desire and expectations. AND, they finished ahead of schedule with an eye always on minimizing the disruption to our living space as much as possible. Each day before leaving, they cleaned up and repositioned the furniture. No paint specks on any furniture or floors! Based on our experience with the entire team, we think Nolan sets the standard for professional painting in the Philadelphia area!!

My experience with Nolan Painted consisted of their painting the entire interior 3rd floor (3 rooms + hall) of my 115 yr old Philadelphia twin townhouse. The space had been neglected for many decades, needed a ton of preparation, some carpentry, and coating with a variety of colors. I was a general contractor for many years prior to retirement and know all too intimately how arduous it is to perform work in a client's home while they're in residence with a highly positive outcome. Everyone at Nolan from the back office, estimator, job foreman, and incredibly well skilled workers never loose site of client perception, needs, approval, and overall contentment during work in process. This is rare and can only be achieved via ongoing training of happy, skilled and low turnover employees. I felt it was important to be on site throughout my project, but when I have Nolan Painting back for future work I'll have no hesitation to just let them have at it.

They were professional right down the line..on time, attitude, attention to my suggestions and much more. The painting turned out exactly as I had hoped. This was 1950s, white trim that had been painted sloppily in the past. Nolan did a great job with correcting past mistakes and bringing the look up to my expectations. Nolan is a family company that I recommend highly.

We were extremely pleased with not only the painting but the people who Nolan Painting sent you our home. Dan & Pete were Pleasant, professional, respectful, careful and accommodating! And that is a tall order! We asked for a few extras such as closets which they did cheerfully! Supervisors Connel and Tiago were delightful and open to our needs. When Dan & Pete ran into illness, Jason & Gavin filled in without a beat! And we were thrilled with the carpentry that Declan did!!! All trim & railing look & feel so good!! From estimate to completion, the processes were efficient and effortless! We highly recommend Nolan Painting!! Patti & Paul Blacker

I highly recommend this company and have used them for multiple interior jobs as well as my exterior. Great company and great employees.

We were told repeatedly by friends in many local school districts that Nolan Painting was the absolute best. We hired them and they absolutely lived up to the reputation that they have worked so hard to achieve. From the beginning through the end, Nolan painting was always friendly, helpful, prompt in response and both exceptional and professional in their work. We appreciated the specific feedback from the estimator - he clearly showed how knowledgeable he was, which made us immediately comfortable and trust Nolan. The color design coordinator was amazing. She helped us pick exterior colors for the house, trim and door that we love and would not have thought of without her guidance. The painters were all friendly, clean and respectful of our family and property (unlike experiences we have had with other contractors). We were particularly impressed with the lead painter who stayed each day until we got home to explain what was done and answered questions we had. I overheard another painter leading a "triple point inspection" on our house to find any areas in need of a touch up. They spent 2 hours after that doing touch ups. He said they look more critically at the house than a homeowner because they seek perfection and we agree they achieved just that. Following the job, on the same day, a manager from Nolan came out to our house to ensure we were satisfied. Throughout the process we were informed daily of what to expect. We could not speak more highly of Nolan Painting. We have never worked with such a professional, talented group before and we have already strongly recommended them to several friends.

We hired Nolan to paint the exterior of our 130-year-old house and to repair weather-damaged window frames, soffits, molding, stucco, etc. Their carpenter expertly matched what we already had in place. The painters did a neat and thorough job, including the stucco and trim. The house looks beautiful. I should also note that both the office staff and the crew were friendly and accommodating. The team in the Nolan office was on top of every detail with regard to the scheduling of our carpentry work, power washing and painting - they communicated with us regularly via phone, e-mail and text. Declan and his team fulfilled all of our carpentry needs...no small task when you're restoring elements of a 100 year old house. Last, but certainly not least came Andy, Jason and the rest of the Nolan team who carried out the prep and painting of the stucco and trim. I can't begin to tell you how incredible it is to have a team that is so focused on completing quality work and ensuring the customer is happy and satisfied. Nolan Painting has long been our go-to painting company. Their painters are well-trained, careful and courteous. Beyond just expert painting, I have, on this latest job, been very pleasantly surprised that they are wizards at fixing exterior elements undermined by rot through their excellent carpenters, and the magic of epoxy paste. This is a task no regular carpenter is keen to do as I have discovered over three years of trying to get this accomplished. Nolan solved this common problem, and I couldn't be more satisfied. I simply pointed their estimator at the outside of my house and said fix what needs fixing - that's exactly what they did. Nolan is not inexpensive, but one is well rewarded by paying for their expertise. As a retired architect I learned long ago that in the building trades, paying properly for expertise is the least expensive solution in the long run.

Nolan's staff has done an amazing job. From the initial contact with their estimator, to the office staff, to the color consultant, to the painters that actually did all the work. The completed result was everything that I had hoped for, From a pricing standpoint, Nolan Painting is on the higher side of the spectrum, but I have to say, it was worth every penny. The only thing that I would suggest is that Nolan considers offering some sort of senior citizens discount. It would have helped. I will use them again and highly recommend them.

We recently moved to an over 55 community. The house is 16 years old. The previous owners did a quick paint job which included painting over light switches and air vents. I called Nolan Painting mostly because of their radio ads. Everything stated in the ads is accurate and more. Every person we spoke to and met were very professional and nice. We have owned houses for many years and had work done by large companies to handymen. This was by far the Best. WE were assisted by our Color Consultant and our Team Leader made suggestions and adjustments to make it a better job. We are completely satisfied ad have already recommended them to our neighbor.

Overall we were most impressed with Nolan Painting, from the estimate provided by Jlm to completion. Project was done meticulously by Suzgo and his team. Siding has been problematic. This time surface preparation was thorough and an oil based primer applied before a coat of water based latex paint. The cedar deck was sanded including the vertical spindles. The Penofin oil penetrating transparent stain has brought out the true colors and the deck is magnificent! We appreciated regular communication with Suzgo on approach to be taken, arrival times, rain and flexibility in slightly modifying schedule to accommodate access to garden while grandchildren and dogs. The team were friendly and a pleasure to interact with. We highly recommend Nolan Painting.

My estimator and set up folks were great. In addition, I had asked that my job be moved up if the schedule allowed and, thankfully, they moved me up a couple of weeks. That's where things went badly. When the crew showed up, they had no idea what the job was and had no supervisor to help coordinate. I spent an hour explaining everything to them and it didn't stick. I had an amended work order so they never really got set on what was to be done and I had to provide much more oversight and reminders than should be expected. Because they didn't know the job scope, they had to use/borrow my extension ladder and, I assume, in the process badly scratched my floor and my cabinets. Regarding cleanliness, I am still cleaning paint drops and splatter off my floors and my electrical outlets that got painted with the walls. I am missing 3 switch plates that were never replaced so I'm off to Home Depot to get new plates. I was referred to Nolan by a colleague that praised their organization, cleanliness, and thoroughness. That, however, was not my experience. The painters that were there were very courteous and helpful, but did not have the appropriate oversight to get the job done well or in a timely fashion.

They were very professional. They paid attention to details. They were neat, clean and very respectful. It was nice to be greeted by a big smile and a friendly "Good Morning" from everyone on the job. I am so happy that Nolan sent a color consultant to help me pick the perfect color. Very lacking in communication. Felt like I had to initiate every phase of this project. Months went by (after I paid the deposit) and no one reached out to update me on ETA for start of project. No one explained fact that I should forward my paint color choice, and when I did was told they don't use that brand(Behr). After was informed that painters were coming realized they didn't inquire as to 'finish'. Contacted them again and said "by the way.. want High Gloss on trim. Only positive was the crew that did the actual work, they were punctual, polite, respectful, and efficient. Not bbn too pleased with end result, thought the trim would be darker and shinier. From curb house looks dull, painting project is not noticeable at all. Also, not sure why door frame wasn't painted, when the door was painted...how could this be left chipped and peeling? Have more complaints, but why bother.

e had our upstairs painted about a year ago. Nolan gave us the lowest bid and was able to do the work in our time frame. The job was completed on time with no issues. There was actually an issue with the color or the paint which was not their fault but was corrected same day with no delay or issue. The best is yet to come. The job came with a two year warranty. About eleven months after the job we noticed some cracks in the ceiling paint and some bleeding streaks on the walls. We called them back, we expected some additional costs. Much to our surprise and satisfaction there was none. Nolan redid the entire job without giving it a second thought. To say we were impressed is an understatement. This company stands by its work. Total class other businesses should follow this customer satisfaction model. We will definitely be using them in the future!!

This is the second time we have used Nolan and again they did a fantastic job. This time we used their paint advisory service and it really helped with finalizing some details. This project included changing the color of our staircases (banister, spindles and treads), to match our new floor and Christy really came thru with a painting scheme and color that really works. Then Shawn and his team executed the work with a real eye on detail and made sure that all the little things were done to our satisfaction. An extremely professional company from the main office personnel to their team in the field. Everyone was committed to delivering a great product, and they did. I had my kitchen cabinets painted and they came out flawless. Their prep work, making sure everything was covered, bordered on obsessive. I elected to reinstall the cabinet doors myself because I was changing out the hardware. They delivered each door individually wrapped. If I had one complaint it was the fact that it took me longer to free the doors from their protective covering, then it did to reinstall them. Great Job Nolan Painting!

This is the first time we've hired a big outfit like Nolan, so we were used to the personal and immediate attention to detail that we had experienced with small companies. Second time around our experience was not a favorable. While the workmanship was satisfactory, the scheduling and communications were inadequate. Based on our experience, Nolan Painting seems to have an employee turnover problem. This was confirmed by their staff. They do not have enough employees to finish their jobs expeditiously and as a result, they pull guys in the middle of a job and reassign them to other jobs. Before hiring Nolan Painting, we were told this is not how they conduct business. The opposite proved to be the case. They shuffle guys from job to job because they do not have enough help. On multiple days, we only had only one painter was at our house. This was completely unacceptable given the size and scope of the job. The job should have been completed in half the time it took them to finish. They showed no consideration to the inconvenience and hardship this caused. We were really disappointed with Nolan Painting. So much so that we decided not to even have them fix the areas they missed and/or needed attention from their painting. They were at our house for four weeks total for the work we had done and we just wanted them to be done and gone.

We believe Nolan Painting is outstanding. We would never use another company for painting. Yes, they are on time, clean, insured, keep you informed and happy. Everything you hear on their ads. What made a difference was, 1. They were quiet and there was no stress. 2. They had all the tools and supplies on site. 3. There were no short cuts. Our job had a lot of unexpected plaster patching. They went above and beyond to address the issues. 4. They have a warranty. 5. They were all multi skilled. 6. There was no need for us to do any prep work. You may think a big company may cost more. Compared to the quality and value of their paint and work, you will not be disappointed.

Arranging the estimate online was convenient. The estimate of the cost of the work was accurate and I was offered the flexibility of changing tasks within the estimate. I was given an accurate start date for the work. The painters showed up on time each morning and supervisory staff showed up to check on the progress of the work. The finished job is exactly what I envisioned and it improved the appearance of the rooms that were painted. I was home while the painters were working. They were courteous and respectful. I would use Nolan Painting again and I would recommend them to neighbors and friends.

I find that most successful companies have become successful because they have a staff with strong customer service skills. Nolan is such a company. Nolan has employees who demonstrate a genuine concern for the customer. Then there are the companies who have been blessed to have employees who far exceed the customers' demands. Nolan has such an employee. His name is Tiago Lopes. There are many companies which do an excellent job of painting one's home, It is the company with the caring employees such as Tiago who experience success in this very competitive market.

There is little to say about the painting itself. Some spots of paint in the floor which is acceptable. Very disappointed with the price negotiation: the initial information was 3-4 men would need 3 days to complete the job. In fact, the job was completed in one day. Nolan was not clear and transparent during the negotiations; my impression is the price was not fairly discussed prior to mutual agreement.

These guys are absolutely the BEST painting contractors you will ever hire. Every step of their process is well organized and communicated in advance. They really take pride in their workmanship and above all else, they want to make sure you are happy at all times. At the end of each day, they would review the days progress and ask for feedback. Then, the following morning upon their arrival, they would again ask for any feedback and discuss the days plan. They were meticulous with their workmanship and were extremely efficient. Based on our experience, we'd highly recommend this company to our friends and family.

We have used Nolan Painting for many years for both interior and exterior work and they have never let us down. A recent redo of our living room and dining room was typical of our experience with them - high quality and exceptional attention to detail. Our recent crew leader was a pleasure to work with and obviously took great pride in his own work as well as the work of the team working under him. The crew was always on time, did a great job of cleaning up at the end of each day and after the job was done with and an absolute pleasure to have in our home. The final look exceeded our expectations.

Nolan Painting is a great company to work with. We have been their customer for over 20 years because of their excellent work and service. We called them this time due to water damage to one of our ceilings. Jim Falk came out right away and let us know how to fix the problem and helped work with our insurance company. When the carpenters came to repair the ceiling, it was done so expertly. We can not even see where the hole was. Then the painter came and it looks like brand new. All the people you work with seem like neighbors and all are masters in their skill. We highly recommend Nolan Painting.

To date, they have now completed downstairs (bathroom, sun room, kitchen, dining room, living room and stairway/foyer through the second floor). Any concerns were resolved immediately (I mean immediately). They clearly have a well-organized organization and hire what seem to be really good people. Everyone from the receptionist to the quote provider to the painters themselves were great. And my house looks soooo much better with professionally painted walls - no question it is worth it. I was originally very happy with the work however as I was able to inspect it in more detail after they left i have a few concerns. I did not have the baseboards, trim and ceiling painted and because of this I noticed when they painted the walls some of the lines are not straight and some paint on ceiling they should not be there. The one thing that does really bother me is they did not remove the heater vents on the walls before painting and now they have some of the wall color on them instead of the white. I think they would have marked some items so when they put them back electronics, etc would be correct. Also I understand the walls needed to dry before hanging everything back up, however it was a lot of work for us to put everything back. Maybe they should come back later and do it? On a positive note the team was friendly and in general the work was ok. really wish they did a better job but it was not horrible.

The crew did excellent work on a very large job - including removing wallpaper from multiple rooms and a two story foyer, and doing extensive painting both inside and outside the house. Our family room included a great deal of trim on built-in bookcases, wainscoting, and around the fireplace. Everything was very professionally done. The crew leader, Kyle, did a great job keeping everything on track. Each person was well trained, and each evening, they left a clean work area. Our house looks great.

We have used Nolan for at least 15 years but I have to say that the most recent experience was nothing short of disappointing. We had work scheduled for several months and had requested that a coat of paint also be added on a chimney, and were told that would not be an issue. When the workers showed up no one had bothered to tell them about the work. We were told that the additional work could not be done for 5 months until spring. They also removed several pieces of window trim without replacing them. Sadly what was once a very reliable company has now either become too large or just does not care about customer service. I would not use or recommend again.

Painter Richard did a careful, thorough job prepping the exterior of our long-neglected, peeling to the bare wood in spots, exterior dining room windows. He sanded, caulked carefully in two colors to match the areas needing caulking, primed and painted expertly. We were very pleased with his work and feel confident about the job. We use Nolan Painting because we have confidence in the quality of the work done. Our only issue, and it is minor, is that the brand of paint used (Sherwin Williams) was not the brand specified in the quote (Benjamin Moore). That may just be due to the paint store used, or the temperature range required, but we would have liked to have been informed of any changes to the proposal. Again, just a "nit" as they are both excellent brands of paint.

The only bad part is your ridiculously overdone pursuit of feedback. I didn't like it on the last job. I was promised that I wouldn't be bothered this time. That didn't work. First, I was reminded by one of your painters to make sure I gave Nolan a top review rating. Then I received a hard-copy review on the final day of your work (which I already completed and mailed). Now I have an email from you to complete designed to require that I fill-out every box and submit it with a "publish my review" button when I value my privacy. Last time I tried to simply skip the email request...but you just kept sending follow-ups. I finally asked for a Nolan person to phone me. Of course, no one ever did...

Nolan installed new exterior windowsills and painted all exterior window. I was kept apprised of unavoidable and understandable delays to the start of the work due to so many rainy days. Both the carpenters and painters showed up early and went right to work each day. They were extremely courteous and kept us informed of their progress. They did superior work, cleaned the work site up each day, and at the end of each day gave us the status of their work and the time they expected they would complete the job. We were very pleased with Nolan and highly recommend them.

This is the third painting contractor that I have used and it's true what they say that, "the third try is the charm". The living room I wanted painted had a huge patch where there was a water leak from an upstairs bathroom, numerous defects where paint was peeling and cracked plaster . Nolan showed up when scheduled to provide an estimate. Where on the job when scheduled and maintained a well organized clean workspace. I couldn't believe the results. The room looks like it never had any issues with the wall and ceiling surfaces. I would highly recommend Nolan for any paint work needed. Professional, courteous and most of all highly skilled. On a side note I have never had this experience before with any of the contractors I have used in the past.

The crew, Chris and Angel, did fantastic work from prep to finish. Everything was covered and well protected. Both worked hard and each day left the site clean. The final product is pure perfection. Our's is a 100 year old home with a mix of plaster and sheetrock walls. Angel is a master with wall prep and painting and Chris is meticulous with trim work. We couldn't be happier with the project.

I did complete a survey form, which was given to Matt on Wed on completion of the project. However, I wish to add that Anita and I were exceptionally pleased with Matt, Angel and fellow employees. We have not enjoyed a great deal of success with other painters as well as other projects we have contracted for in the 15 years we have lived here. It was a pleasure to have your employees in our house. I always felt confident that their work would be 1st class and felt very comfortable leaving the house with Matt & his crew in charge. We hope to have additional work done by Nolan Painting. We will certainly recommend your company to others, Sincerely, Edward and Anita Schmitt

It is so hard to find a company that resolves any issue with the speed and quality that Nolan did. Because of how they resolved it, we will continue to use Nolan Painting. Customer service and follow up are as important if not more important than the basic job. Nolan stands on their reputation and honors their work.

We cannot describe the commitment, professionalism, and kindness this company showed us as they worked tirelessly to paint the ABC House (A Better Chance, Lower Merion) in Ardmore, for FREE! They worked non-stop for 4 days, with an amazing team to repair and brighten the home. They treated our job as any other (paid) job, with amazing quality and respect. We cannot recommend them more highly, on every level. They even came back (within the hour of a call) a week later to fix a ceiling panel for us (unrelated to their work, just as a nice gesture!).

From the first interaction when I requested a quote thru to the end of the project, their communication was crisp, prompt and courteous. Kevin was very professional when he walked us thru the process and answered all our questions. When it came to completing the job, Eduardo, Angel and Andrew were top notch. They took care of our home as if it were there own. Drop cloths everywhere, put up protection in rooms they were not working in to keep the dust down from sanding and worked hard to complete the job in just under 2 days. When they cleaned up, it was like they were never there. Would highly recommend them for any painting job you have.

From the very beginning, Nolan Painting was nothing short of spectacular. Todd Hewish (estimator) was very knowledgeable and thorough when it came to determining the cost & plan of action for the painting of the interior of my home. Color consult was a breeze as I had a pretty good idea of what colors I wanted, but being able to bounce ideas off of someone with A LOT more knowledge than me was a bonus. The painters arrived on time the first day of the job & Ivan informed me that the job wouldn't take as long as initially thought. Ivan & his crew painted my home in just two days. One issue came up that was quickly resolved amongst the team & I am very happy with the results. I would gladly recommend Nolan Painting to family & friends (that is how I was referred as well!).

Our job turned out to be more involved than expected due to the quality of the walls after Nolan's painters removed the wallpaper and the glue. It was pointed out that the paperhanger had not prepared the walls properly before hanging the paper. There was an extra charge for the additional spackling and sanding that was required, but we felt this was more than fair considering the condition of the walls. They even came back within a day to do a little touching up that was needed. The men were very clean as they worked and covered everything. We are very happy with the result and were offered a discount before even beginning as we were able to have the work done between Christmas and New Year's which worked out well for all involved. We would definitely recommend Nolan and would use them again in the future.

The painters (especially Ivan) were cheerful, pleasant, hardworking, and dedicated, doing more than was required by the scope of work, simply because they were determined to do a beautiful job. In one or two spots on some trim, a bit more sanding would have made the job perfect, but overall, the work was very, very well done. They met with a very difficult challenge with my dining room ceiling, which has a strange surface that causes paint to bubble, but they persisted, trying one coating after another until they found one that would work. I know it took longer than the estimator anticipated, but nevertheless, the painters were not willing to be defeated, and it looks beautiful now!

As noted in our hand written review, this is, as i recall, the fifth time we have utilized the professional talents of Nolan Painting, and our satisfaction remains the same as in the past. The entire team from estimator to the carpenters to the work crew is well trained and professional. Just a word about the crew...each member demonstrated capability, interactional skills, patience, diligence, and a very positive,attitude, all of were greatly appreciated and suggest that each crew member likely has those traits, but also that Nolan Painting insists that jobs be done in that fashion. Job well done...we shall call in the future.

Everyone was professional, courteous and knowledgeable. My only criticism is constructive: I wish I had been advised to replace heat/ air registers, some baseboards and light switch covers and outlet covers. Handyman I have used have always done so in other rooms. I did, on my own initiative, replace the registers but then, at additional cost, had to have your team come back and install them and paint (a very small) area. Too bad would have given you a better reference without this.

Thank you for a job well done on the exterior of our home. We needed stucco and window repairs and everything was done expertly and quickly. Milton was a great crew leader and the team worked long hours to get the job completed in just 2 weeks. The colors are fantastic and it was great to have a color consultant help with the selections. My only advice for future customers would be to get an accurate estimate for the cost that includes the paint and the carpentry expenses before the job starts-we were a bit surprised with the added expenses once the job was started.

The design consultant (Christie) was very helpful to have for choosing colors that we wanted but that would also transition well from room to room. We had a big project with a total of 5 rooms being painted and some minor carpentry. Declan and Christian were polite and efficient. Milton and his crew (Mamadou, Juan Carlos, Joe, and 2 others whose names I forgot) were able to complete the work in 2 days! Quotes. Quotes could be a bit more detailed. In lieu of just a one-line general description with cost, a bit more detail of what is included and what is not included would be helpful. This would eliminate the last minute surprise of something not being included in the scope of work. Work spanning the weekend. When painting in areas that are 'heavy use areas' of a household (i.e.: kitchens, laundry rooms, etc.), remove plastic coverings from doorways so that the family can access areas when painters are gone for one or two days. Used paint cans. Give the customer the option of keeping partially used paint cans or having Nolan Painting removing ALL items from the customer's property. Area preparation/cleanup. Nolan Painting is very good at protecting the customer's property. Final cleanup is good but could be a better. But then, you are hiring a painting crew, not a cleaning crew. It is nice to receive a $100.00 off a subsequent job for doing a review.

The job switched leaders a few times. The initial paint consult was not thorough enough (newbies and needed more guidance than we received for picking paint colors), this threw the whole project off. They did make it right in the end, but was frustrating. Probably cut some corners as well. IF we weren't home at times to monitor, things would have went off course even more. Not sure I would recommend. In the end, it looks great, but was a frustrating experience.

The job was much harder than expected with a hellish wallpaper which didn't want to come off but they did a perfect work, cared about details, fixed things which were not done properly 35 years ago (badly covered up holes here and there) and yes, I am very happy with my kitchen. Will call them again.

Our job involved the replacement of a mildewed wall and replacement of siding on the house. The guys arrived very promptly on the assigned day and soon discovered that not only was the wall infused with black mold, but the studs were also affected with it as well. They had to do a much more extensive job than originally thought. However, they completed the replacement of the studs and walls within a day and a half, and then the painter came to finish off the inside wall, which took another day and a half.

The entire thing was done within one week start to finish, which we had been afraid would not happen. Each day when the Nolan workers left, they left us a completely clean and tidy space. The place looks great and one would never know there had been a problem. Kudos to this company for their professionalism and excellent work ethic!

Everyone was a pleasure to work with except for the carpenter who tried to slip in an inferior deck slat because he originally cut it too short and then used a second small piece of wood to try and make up the difference. After seeing signs around our new neighborhood, we decided to give Nolan painting a try for painting our ceiling and living room/hallways. We are so sorry we did. When the workers came out, unfortunately no one spoke English very well. I had a difficult time understanding what they were saying to me. Very nice workers, but at least one person should speak English. They missed a spot on the ceiling as well as the hallway wall. After calling them to tell them about the missed spots, we then received a call to schedule an estimate. You would think that after spending $1800, they would know who their current customers are. They did come out to fix the issues, however, if the company was called twice by us to fix their problems, you would think a person from management would have come out to see the issues. There are several reputable painting companies in the area; next time we will choose someone else.

I would have given Nolan five stars, however the crew missed some spots they had promised to touch up and they never consulted with me on whether or not I wanted to have my windows re-puttied and they just painted. I had asked them to consult with me if they saw something and felt something needed adjusted/repared or added to the contract. They also rolled the paint on the doors and it left a very rough texture on the surface (doors were previously brush painted) Windows are filthy after power washing the house but I guess that's to be expected. All in all the rest of the work was done well, good prep work, and two coats of paint - caulked wood where needed. I would hire Nolan again.....

Within days I had an estimate, color consultation, and date scheduled! I always use Nolan because of their professionalism, careful, thorough work and cleanliness, and because of how they go above and beyond. This last time, one of their guys put in extra hours to fix something he didn't have to, so that the job would look perfect. From the first estimate through to follow-up, they are a model of excellence.

They did an awesome job and made sure we were pleased with the finished project before they left. The area was just as clean as they found it upon leaving. They went above and beyond their job description by taking care of our dog during a thunder and lightening storm. Thank you Nolan Painting, Agnes Campbell

Our experience with Nolan Painting was very satisfying. The people we dealt with from the estimator to the workers themselves, were very helpful and the work was started and completed in a thorough efficient way. Any questions that we had were answered and problems that may have shown up were brought to our attention immediately so that they could be resolved. We thought the job was done neatly and the price was a reasonable one. Would recommend them highly.

They were here for a week and each day spent quite a bit of time cleaning up at the end of each day. They were very professional and hard at work from the moment they arrived until days end. Overall, I was very happy with their work, the finished room looked great! So I was disappointed the next day when cleaning up to find two small spots of paint on the carpet, one the wall color and one the trim color. They were so careful to cover everything, but apparently missed that area of the carpet. I would've given my review 5 stars if it wasn't for this.

I've used Nolan Painting on two occasions. While both experiences were excellent, these comments refer to the most recent job, in February 2017. I had the living room, dining room and 3 bedrooms painted — quite a big job. The results were more great. The team arrived on time and worked diligently until 5 PM. They cleaned up at the end of every session and, since all bedrooms were being painted, made sure I had a place to sleep! I expected two or three painters to work one room at a time. But five painters arrived and the job was finished to my satisfaction in three days, rather than the five days originally proposed. The five painters at once presented a bit of a problem. I only prepared one bedroom. With so many painters, they worked on at least two rooms at once. I wasn't able to do my part have have the rooms cleared and ready to be painted. I would recommend Nolan Painting to anyone.

Suzgo, Juan Carlos and Ferne (Sp?) were great; extremely hardworking, concientious, nice, kind -- and went above and beyond to make sure I was happy with the results. Hats off to Suzgo for his willingness to work so hard to make sure the tough color (robust orange) got all the coats it required to look really good. Conal and Declan came by to figure out how to best deal with the two places that required carpentry work. And Conal even came back to review some work and help me better understand what I could expect (due to the lead paint issues). When the job had to go over a weekend (due to snow day), the team put the kitchen back together so it was useable over the weekend. And as he was leaving, Suzgo encouraged me to look for issues and if I found any to let him know and that he would come back and attend to them. And he did. Suzgo came back one last time and worked another 6 hours to make the kitchen super nice. And he didn't treat me like an idiot for wanting more work done. It's an old house; kitchen turned into a complicated job. But they did it -- and did it extremely well. MANY thanks to Suzgo, his crew and the others who helped transform the kitchen, bathroom, and bedroom into really nice spaces!

sanded away. Since this is in a poorly lit area, I am certain my painter did not see it. I would not have if I hadn't been looking so carefully! Overall, a terrific, thorough job, especially for a hard-to-please client like me!

Average experience given the price. Contractor did not complete the job before he left to go to another job. He left lights that had been installed unplugged so that I had to take care of that myself. Put a note on our door that he would return and he never did. He did call later that evening saying he would return the next day at 8 am and did not show up until 9 am. Very nice, courteous young man, though. Received the bill for the balance before the job was even completed, then a reminder email and two phone calls two days in a row to ask for me to pay even though I had explained to the secretary that I had been in touch with the manager about the service. Also told him I would pay the balance, but received these annoying calls anyway. Hope they learn from the experience and pay more attention to detail in the future. Overall the lighting job was good.

Our experience with Nolan, like our past experiences, was great. Jim came to the house and discussed our needs with us, and we agreed upon a ballpark date to begin work. He offered the services of the color consultant, which we took advantage of. Then, two weeks before work was to start, we got a phone call that Nolan would be able to start work a week early due to a schedule change, so we took advantage of that as well. The painter was meticulous in his work and his clean-up. He arrived on time every day and was cordial and inobtrusive. He did a great job as well. No complaints at all!

Nolan isn't the least expensive - but they are the BEST. If you care about the quality of the finished product then Nolan is the obvious choice. They are professional from start to finish - from estimating, to color consult to project manager to final walk through - the whole experience was a good one. They are on time, treated our home with care and protected all items/surfaces, addressed every one of my concerns and came back to follow up to make sure I was completely happy with the work. You can absolutely find a lower estimate - no doubt, but you won't get the same over the top customer service and magnificently perfect paint job anywhere else!

My experience with Nolan Painting was stellar. Starting with my consultation, I knew I was in good hands. Dan and the crew were very personable and professional. They arrived on time, took great care to protect my home and furnishings as they worked, and their work was impeccable. They made recommendations as they came across "challenging" areas of the job, and showed true dedication to doing a great job. Now I want other rooms painted!

Carlos was absolutely excellent -- if and when I hire Nolan again, I would want him to lead the job. His partner on the first day, Brian, was terrific as well. I also appreciated my correspondence with Rob, who provided an estimate for the job and then patiently answered questions. My only very minor problems came with the billing department -- not only did they neglect to recognize that I put down a 1/3 deposit, but then I sent them my credit card number to pay the remainder and asked for a confirmation of receipt, and I did not receive one. However, this would not deter me from working with Nolan again.

My experience with this company was terrific from start to finish! The gentleman who came out first to discuss what was needed and estimated the job was extremely polite, patient and knowledgeable. I really appreciated his honest recommendations, instead of painting areas of the house that would have been unnecessary. The three painters were experienced and wonderful to work with! They did above and beyond what was expected! I had some problems that arose while they were working and they came up with great solutions and completely took care of the issue. I was amazed! I definitely would recommend Nolan Painters to anyone who needs an experienced and excellent painting company.

We can't say enough good things about Nolan. Their team (Suzgo, Juan Carlos and Randy) were timely, professional, courteous, efficient and worked neatly. They showed up early and their first duty before scraping, painting etc... was to cover needed areas, trim bushes away from house, tape and cover capping and windows. The worked so neat each day that it was hard to tell they were there as they left everything as they found it spotless. They also recommended stucco repairman Keiran and Seamus (Dun-May) who were reasonably priced and did the same quality work. My wife and I were very pleased and would highly recommend Nolan

On a job as complex as ours, where significant ceiling repairs in an old home were required as well as extensive painting, it's unreasonable to expect that there won't be problems. A window shade was damaged, a light bulb broken, an area to be painted somehow overlooked. What distinguished Nolan, and the absolutely most compelling reason I would hire them again in a minute (beyond the superior quality of the painting and repairs) was their prompt, friendly, bend-over-backwards response to any problems. From the bid submission to the scheduling, job completion, and contact with office staff, every Nolan employee was exceptionally friendly, professional, and customer focused. I hadn't realized how rare that level of service has become until working with Nolan. They really mean it when they say they want you to be happy.

Luis walked around house with me as we progressed, he wanted to make sure we were happy and satisfied. Overall everyone was very professional, courteous and worked as a team. I must say that the work done was fine. Just fine. I was not blown away by the quality or attention to detail. I may call them back to fix some thing within the 2 year warranty but that also requires a commitment of my time and I'm not sure I want to deal with it. Estimator says yes to lots of stuff but clearly does not develop a plan for exceeding my expectations with the crew. The crew worked hard and I cannot say anything negative about the team that did the work. They were very nice and were very attentive. However, the wood repairs that should have been done with care were not even considered until I pointed them out. Overall, you guys didn't do anything I could have done my self except climb on a ladder. My experience is that the job was the budweiser of paint jobs. Like a bud, it's fine, but no one will say it was the best. Not even close. I don't have experience with painters having always done things myself. If this represents what I can expect from professionals then I'm better off just doing it myself and saving myself the disappointment. Low value for money.

Generally, I found your organization and personnel to be polite and professional. However, I do have some issues with the job. I'm making these comments in the spirit of helping you improve your business. First, it appeared the communication between your estimator and painting team needs improvement. Rob, the estimator, stated his computer automatically calculated the dimensions of the room to be painted. However, the morning of the job, I received a call from your team's foreman asking for the room size, size of walls to be painted, which paint where (two walls one color, two walls and ceiling another, trim to be semi-gloss and match color of associated walls). Second, it appears your team ran out of the semi-gloss for two walls and they painted the trim on the front door, trim around french doors, trim at top of walls and the corner round trim where these walls meet another wall. I assume they ran out of paint and purposely painted these items with wall paint. I say this because your representative was here this morning to remedy the situation and he had this semi-gloss paint on his truck after checking the paints left by your original team. Third item is a professional issue. I have natural wood beams coming down from a vaulted ceiling meeting the walls with wood trim. Several of these beams had been "nicked" with the white trim paint and where very noticeable. Your rep this morning covered these with a brown wall paint and all is good now. I was sorry that your original team didn't point these miscues out to us and say they'd be back to remedy the situation. Again, I hope this is taken as constructive criticism and will help you become even better at your business. I did appreciate your very quick response when I contacted you regarding these issues. Recently had all bedrooms and bathrooms on the second floor of my new home painted by Nolan. The prep for this task was not easy as there was crown molding and border removal, and lots of detailed areas to work around in the master bath. From my first encounter with estimator Jon, I knew I was going to receive exceptional service. Tiago and his crew Andy, Chris, Dylan, Tom, & Rafael were neat, clean, and efficient. They even finished a day earlier than anticipated. I used Nolan based on FB and Yelp reviews and would highly recommend them to anyone who needs painting services. This is a craft that these gentlemen have mastered and we are enjoying having our new house feel like home. I look forward to using their services again in the future and referring them to others.

Repainting the entire outside of our home took 9 days. Every day was a pleasure as the employees of Nolan met or exceeded my expectations. The training Nolan painting does for the staff creates a culture that I wish more companies would strive for. I had contact with at least 9 employees from Rob and Nichole in the office and Kevin and Matt and their crew members on the job site. Everyone listens and seeks to understand the customers questions and desired outcomes as well as doing a fine job. Nolan places a yard sign on the job site; they left it there when they finished. I am so pleased that I've kept it up a week more to show off my home and their work. thanks Nolan

Jose did a great job painting our family room, breakfast room, and kitchen area. Brian did a great job on our kitchen island; the end result is beautiful. I really appreciate Nolan getting me right in, as this house was going on the market for sale. We always enjoy working with Nolan, however I do have a consistent complaint, one that I have voiced before and that is the need for improved attention to detail. Because this house is up for sale, and a would-be buyer is unlikely to notice, I did not make an issue out of the following, but I do think that you should be aware. I just installed Calacatta Carrera marble on the island top. Brian covered the island but also spray painted the cabinet doors ON the island. I questioned the safety of the marble and both Jack and Brian assured me. All was well with the exception of two areas noticeable to me where clearly the spray permeated through the cover. Fortunately, these areas are relatively small and near the edge, as well as thankfully the house is up for sale. Had I been staying in the house, I would have a huge issue with this. Lastly, there is a mark on the marble, which I believe was due to the drill being placed on the island and possibly falling over when the doors and cabinets were being installed. When Brian came back to correct the doors, I politely asked him to not put anything at all on the island top. Again, I did not make an issue of this because we are selling the house and all of this was done for sale. Nolan always returns to make the job right, when things need correcting. The guys are wonderful to work with, always pleasant and I trust them in my house when I'm not able to be home. Thank you again for being so responsive to fitting us in when we needed it; I'm aware that the painting of the island turned out to be a bigger job than expected; we are very pleased with the paint job. Thank you, Patti

There is not enough room to explain how great this project turned out. We have used Nolan to paint our entire house, that was great. Then we had a pipe burst and after the emergency repair came in with their crew and put up crown molding and painted. The best part was they reacted to our emergency and were there when we needed them. But this time was the whipped cream on the sundae. Moved into the house over a year ago. Every interior door either did not close correctly, would not stay closed or open or would not slide correctly. Nolan's crew came in hung all new doors, all new hardware and painted all the doors and trim. Every door now opens and or closes correctly and the new doors and hardware look great. Here is the whipped cream... Once all the doors were replaced we were left with the door to the garage , which was a plain wooden, tired looking door. Declan the carpenter came in and put molding on the door to make it look like all of the new 5 panel doors. Once painted it matched the rest of the doors and looks spectacular. NOLAN did it again. A perfect job.

Nolan Painting painted the entire interior of my home before I moved in six years ago and did an outstanding job; I didn't even have to be home while they worked. I recently wanted some additional painting done, and Nick was assigned to the job. He did a great job - even better than I had anticipated, because there were some drywall issues that needed to be addressed, and he took care of them before painting. He also matched the previous paint color beautifully. I couldn't be more pleased with the job that he did. Jon gave me an on-the-spot estimate, and Nicole always got back to me quickly when I had questions. Nolan Painting may be a little more expensive than some painting firms, but you can't go wrong with their quality and responsiveness.

The quality of the work was great as expected. The difference was in the communications. Everything from the start was exceptional including the coordination of the color selection, scheduling and the communications of the crew leader when they were leaving for the day. Did I mention that I felt completely comfortable leaving the crew at my home unattended. Great Job!

We were thrilled with our Nolan Painting experience. The workers were respectful, clean, and punctual. They made sure to double check that they had the right color and finish of paint, and they also went out of their way to be kind to my very stranger-wary dog. It's these small kindnesses that set Nolan Painting above the rest. Their work was impeccable, and we will definitely contact Nolan again when we have painting needs.

They show up when they say they will, are meticulous in their preparation, and fastidious in their penchant for detail. They work quietly and quickly, and their clean up afterward is complete and thorough. They treated my home with respect and explained everything they were going to do prior to beginning the work. We call Nolan because the work is always excellent and the men are completely dependable and pleasant. Each day as they painted the outside, we would return home to an immaculate yard. Despite a great amount of sanding and scraping, there was not a chip of old paint anywhere on the ground. The work on the outside of the house was perfect, including some unexpected carpentry work that was necessary. The grounds were left with absolutely no debris from the job. Nolan is a company determined to provide the best service possible!

I originally gave a 1 star rating but the owner called me before the rating was released and felt it was unfair. In all honesty, the final paint job was probably a high 4 maybe even low 5 rating. My dissatisfaction is over the price and the process. Our 5 bedroom house with a standalone 3 car garage (1/4 to 1/3 of exterior on both is stone and windows required only outside frame to be painted, some none at all) was quoted as $16,900 originally. The process was my biggest problem. Communications between salesperson, color consultant, scheduler, project manager, and actual painters seemed to break down repeatedly. We were trying to match existing gutter color and we ultimately paid an additional $1200 for paint purchased prematurely, and another almost $2,000 was going to be charged for some detail work the salesperson didn't describe in the quote that I asked to be done. The extra $2,000 was dropped after I complained and owner offered to reduce final bill even more. I already paid so don't know if he will provide a refund or not. We had a small flashing repair that needed to be fixed and their carpenter said it was not needed even though the rest of the house was done the way I wanted. The paint quality was good, but the process was very frustrating. I picked them because I wanted a professional project, not just a paint job. Disappointed.

The painters on the project were good painters, but my $16,900 original exterior paint job was not a good experience. Very poor communication between the sales person, the scheduler, the project manager, the color consultant, and the workers. Although I expressed repeatedly to salesperson, scheduler, color consultant, and painters the importance of color matching gutters and downspouts following a recent remodeling, the project manager proceeded to buy paint for the whole project, even though the painter was creating sample finished spots to make sure colors were right and approved. Never met project manager until several days into project and never given contact info for anyone other than scheduler. After complaining they did drop some of their extra charges, but I still paid an extra $1,200. IMHO, very expensive and too many people involved in the process.

I found the teamwork phenomenal with your company however I feel your company is stronger with exterior painting than interior. Ten of the fifteen windows on my first floor are still painted stuck, and the one I was able to free now has a terrible presentation where the adhered parts tore apart. At least eight from my upper level are stuck. I am still devastated about the poor quality and lack of supervision on the paint application to my windows. I would not rehire you for this reason.

We chose Nolan for several reasons! First, they painted a house in our neighborhood that was so far gone with chipped and peeling paint that we laughed when the trucks pulled up, but to our amazement they brought it completely back to life. We wrote the name down and called when we were ready. Nick the sales rep was very attentive, knowledgeable and personable, which meant a lot when you are deciding to spend so much money. The team that showed up to scrape and paint our house were all very friendly, respectful, and professional. They covered every surface to protect it be it concrete porch or shrubbery. They made sure our cats didn't run outside when they had to come in to remove storm windows or use the bathroom. They arrived early and left late to utilize all the daylight they could. They cleaned up the work site each day before leaving. The cleaned their fingerprints from the windowpanes before putting the storm windows back in. We are so happy with the job and will use them again!

Nolan has been nothing short of spectacular. The initial quote was in line with cost others quoted, but what we couldn't have anticipated has been the level of service and professionalism of the entire team. They were highly competent. When we noted after a limited amount of painting had been done that there'd been a misunderstanding about what parts of some trim should be painted one color vs. another, they went back and corrected the issue without any questions. When we asked to add on some work, the process was simple and in line with previously quoted costs. Another great service is their integrated carpentry service-made repair of some rotted woodwork seamless in the whole process. Great work!

We are very satisfied with Jack McLaughlin, the foreman for our job (exterior of our home was painted) who really took the time to check everything out and went over the details of what would be done. The painters, Alex and James, were totally professional, yet down to earth and friendly. They were excellent workers who would always have time to talk to us and answer our questions. This was a very good experience and we love the way our home looks.

We had four rooms painted and a fifth ceiling repaired/painted. The crew from Nolan Painting was on time and remarkably efficient, and they did an excellent job overall, including cleanup and painting. Best of all, they made things very easy for us homeowners. All that at what we consider a very fair price.

A Perfect Match We had new siding put on our house two years ago. It bothered me that the storage shed and doghouse were still the old blue with white trim. Tiago worked patiently with me to match the new greyish white with very dark green trim. I'm so impressed with the job he, Nick, and Anthony did, finishing the work perfectly in a day! I'm very happy.

We couldn't be happier with how everything turned out. Our painter (James) showed up on time every day, and did a phenomenal job repainting our nursery. He was incredibly thorough while prepping/patching the room, did a great job painting, and was extremely clean. Once he left, there was almost no trace that he'd even been there (other than the beautifully painted room). From the initial appointment all the way through to executing the work, Nolan Painting was a pleasure to deal with. We intend to use them for any future painting jobs in our home, and we'd recommend them to anyone.

He was easy to get in contact with, responded promptly, and answered all of my questions. He also helped me with several options to get the project exactly how we wanted. Adrianna did a great job helping us chose the accent color for the house. She worked around our schedule and came out to provide samples and information about the color selection. Conal and Julio were extremely professional. They kept us informed about each step of the project. Their attention to detail was outstanding. We have used Nolan a few time during the course of our home ownership. We have always been very impressed with the quality, professionalism, and work completed. We had additional work that was involved when replacing a window and I feel that it could have been better evaluated before the job began so we might of had a clearer idea of the expense and additional time. For example, the window could have been measured and ordered before the job began so the we wouldn't have waited a few weeks for it to arrive. Also there was confusion between us in the original estimate, we had requested the full garage be painted but in the estimate only part of it was covered. Since neither my husband or I are contractors or lawyers we didn't catch that the stucco needed to be listed separately on the estimate. It was all resolved well by the crew, but it shouldn't have been an issue to begin with. We are very pleased with the finished work, but the process seemed a bit more unpredictable this time than in our previous experience with Nolan. Perhaps this was because it was a larger job than previous ones and we had a fair amount of work that had to be added during the process. I would still recommend Nolan, because even with the confusion the job was handled fairly with professionalism. Thanks!

I am one of "those" clients who can't find the right color. One of the Nolan color consultants helped me choose a great color for the exterior of my home. When two side were painted, I wasn't sure it was exactly what I wanted, so the guys delayed their schedule (for 3 weeks) while I re-consulted, choosing several other tones, which they cheerfully painted, also providing me the paint so I could try other spots on the house. Never once did they rush me, and if they rolled their eyes at yet one more indecisive client, I certainly did not know it. In every aspect of the experience I have been pleased - from the initial consultation to the walk-around at the end of the job. Everything was covered, no spray on the roof or trim or bushes. Professional from start to finish. I am a happy camper - although I may not have the color exactly right yet. If I decide to make another color choice in a few months, it's the Nolan crew I'll be contacting.

I was informed of the date my home was to be painted. The Crew leader arrived at 7:30 the day before to go over the entire project. The next day the house was power washed. The following day the Crew leader arrived with his entire crew and they did a great job of prepping the house for the painting the following day. As usual they were all very pleasant and went about their business of painting the entire exterior, my shed as well as my deck and deck railings. During the course of painting the Crew leader pointed out some wood damage they discovered and recommended a solution for each item. He came up with an agreed price and then fixed the damaged areas. I never met a more friendly group of skilled painters as the ones who painted my house this past June. They cleaned up at the end of the work day and thanked me for my business. Working with Nolan Painting over the years has always been a very professional and pleasurable experience. Everyone on the team did a great job, but we were most impressed with Chris. He was definitely a perfectionist in his work and always willing to go "above and beyond" in all aspects of our project. Supervisory staff was very attentive and responsive also in the progress and final outcome of the project. Cheryl and John Calnan

I was very happy upon completion of the job. The paint color looked great and I was really happy with the quality of the work. I was disappointed with the start of the job- it was scheduled for Wednesday and I was told the painters would arrive between 7a-8am. I was at my house, after re-arranging my work schedule, and when they did not arrive by 8:15am- I called. There was a mix up with the schedule, and they had the job starting Thursday. The painters showed up at 9am on Wednesday, after reworking the schedule.

Once the project was done, the weather was very uncooperative, the house looks great, I had the exterior clapboard painted and the trim done with a whole new color to match an existing John Hardie renovation done two years earlier and I am very pleased, it all came together. They did the eaves and the trim and areas of clapboard. They were respectful, neat and very careful not to damage the gutters, (most painters don't worry about leaning on the gutters), they communicated with me everyday as the weather turned sour and the rain threaten to fall. They didn't balk when I asked about a spot missed or asked a question. I felt comfortable to question them and they made sure they followup with my concerns. In fact I learned a bit. I have them scheduled to do further work in the fall inside.

While the painters and supervisors are very polite and eager to please (they come back to fix things you are not happy with as many times as you need, free of charge), the hassle of having to call painters back to the house numerous times was not what I expected when I hired a professional company. They came back three times to fill in places they had missed or re-sand and paint rough patches etc. but the finished job- although a marked improvement over the room prior to painting- still does not look very neat and clean and I feel disappointed that we will be spending time touching up many areas ourselves. Overall, I felt like communication between the painters/supervisors/customers and attention to detail with preparation and finish work were lacking.

We first heard about Nolan Painting's outstanding service from our daughter who had extensive work done on her home, so it stood to reason to call Nolan for our own paint projects. The work was done perfectly and exactly to our specifications and the painters were professional, personable and clean!. We will not only call Nolan Painting for future projects, but will specifically request Carlos and Brian. Elliot and Victoria Weisman

Our entire experience with Nolan painting was perfect from start to finish. The work that Nolan completed on the exterior of our home is beautiful, but I have to say that it was the manner in which everything was communicated to us that stands out the most. The appointment for our estimate was prompt and highly informative, the project leader (Matthew Whiteman) updated us consistently throughout the project, and the painters were all incredibly skilled and tidy. The fact that they had to balance the weather and also work around several other contractors completing work on our home really speaks to the professionalism of this incredible company. We could not be happier with the results!

I've used Nolan Painting for at least 7-8 jobs. The largest was painting my entire downstairs - including an addition. I was extremely please. I've used them to paint the outside of my house - excellent. I've used them to repair old nursery firniture - beautiful results! I used them to paint 2 of my upstairs bedrooms. Thus, when it came time to paint the last 2 bedrooms, I didn't hesitate - nor shop pices. I hired Nolan. Their painting and and spackling was excellent - except - for the first - time they left a huge screw in my wall when normally they asked me if they should leave it or remove it and fill it. This one I did not intend to use and would have had them refill it. I didn't point it out to them (as at times I hadn't in the past but they always checked with me as I am home). But what really disappointed me this time was their poor cleanup. They covered all the furniture and I assume vaccumed - but I had to totally reclean my entire upstairs as well as stairwell and center hall. It took me days to do as I am battling cancer and am in treatment. Everything was covered with plaster dust. Every wall, door, woodwork, window, furniture had to be wiped down. Dusting was not enough...that just spread it around. Every piece of bedding in rooms had to be rewashed as well as curtains. And this was the case in the 2 bedrooms that were NOT being painted just not quite as dusty as the rooms painted. I would have assumed they would close doors to rooms not being painted and maybe place a barrier under the doorway. There was a different supervisor than the one I always had on my other jobs...possibly that is the difference. But I have to be honest, this job disappointed me....for the first time. Maybe they think I am a customer for life and they can take shortcuts. Maybe it was an inexperienced job supervisor. My recommendation: make a list of everything you want included before you sign the contract and use my info here to guide you. They are not inexpensive but in the past I didn't mind paying for quality work. I don't believe this time I got quality work. Karen Naylor

We simply could not be more pleased with the work performed at our home by the crew from Nolan Painting. Each and every person we dealt with was helpful, friendly and courteous. We had both interior and exterior work done, and the Nolan workers kept the work site meticulously clean and treated our home with the utmost care and respect. The crew chief, Suzgo, was incredibly conscientious, and went above and beyond to make sure we were satisfied with the job. He even came to our home on a Sunday morning during a winds storm out of concern for our storm windows that were being refinished and which were vulnerable to being knocked over in the wind. We have rarely encountered such stellar customer service, and would not hesitate to use Nolan again and to recommend Nolan to others.

Nolan's workmanship was excellent. But most important to us was that the work team consisted of competent, hardworking and friendly people who respected our property, and respected our privacy, and checked in with us frequently throughout the project. Nolan was prompt in providing an estimate. The job actually required more work than initially estimated, but the revised pricing was reasonable. Scheduling took a while, perhaps because it was "busy" summer season. The workers were prompt, courteous, and kept me informed of their progress. They finished the job a day early by staying late on the last day. The job was well done and they cleaned up so well that you never would have known they were here. Initially I was very pleased with Nolan. They were careful to protect my furniture and minimize dust and they cleaned up afterwards. I was allotted two days for painting my entire living room, woodwork and ceiling as well as a stairway wall, top-of-the-stairs wall and ceiling above the stairs. On the second day it seemed, following a phone call from the office, that the painters were expected/ordered to finish that day. As a consequence the stairway wall has white gaps near the ceiling above the colored wall. The front, old window-paned door has paint on the windows and areas requiring touch up. The front storm door also needs to be touched up. I feel the painters were conscientious but when forced to rush due to other Nolan scheduling exigencies, their work became unsatisfactory.

We used Painter-for-a Day and were very happy with the service. The painters were prompt, pleasant, and hard-working, and the painting was done very well. I'm rating this 4 out of 5 stars instead of 5 out of 5, because there was a bit of a communication problem and because a small offset section of ceiling did not get a second coat. On a 10-point scale, this would be a 9. 2 minor communication issues: One was a bit of a language barrier with the painters. Also we might have planned the job a bit differently if we'd known in advance how the work could be scheduled. Part of the job was expected to require a tall ladder, so instead of 1 painter for the day, we learned that we'd have 2 painters for a half day. When they arrived for the job, we learned they could stay longer than the half day by applying the same hourly rate to the extra time. Had we known this in advance, I think we might have planned the job a bit differently. Overall we were very happy with Nolan's Painter-for-a-Day, and we'd definitely use the service again.

Over the years, we have hired many contractors to perform work on our house. Nolan Painting is one of the very few that I would recommend without reservation. - When I first saw their website, I thought that they were going to be VERY expensive. I was pleasantly surprised that their price was affordable, and in line with some of the smaller local contractors. - Their proposal was submitted quickly--no waiting for days (or weeks!) for an estimate. There was clear and constant communication, mostly via email, from the first request for the estimate through to the end of the job. Everyone I spoke to (office, crew leader, painters) was always courteous and professional. - The painters did an excellent job, and kept the work area neat. They tidied everything up at the end of each day. - There was only one small part of the job that had not been done to our satisfaction. I called the crew leader and he came out, on a SUNDAY, to make it right. We couldn't be happier with the results!

Tommy did a great job and worked exceptionally hard through what was the hottest day of the year yet. The results were good overall, after having a few items touched up. The one thing that could have worked better was more clarity on the exact start date. I get the weather has impacts, but it was frustrating to see the start date pushed back twice and have to re-adjust my work schedule. Otherwise, it was a good experience.

Our stucco wall looks fabulous after Carlos and the Nolan Painting team cleaned, sealed and painted it. It changes the whole look of our home. Great job. Everyone from Nolan was friendly and outgoing. They told us the steps and timing. Completely cleaned up after they finished painting. We are completely satisfied. I wish they did some other home improvement stuff- we'd hire them for that too.

Instead of buying all new kitchen cabinets, we decided to have our wood cabinets painted white. We got a few estimates and even though Nolan Painting came in a bit higher than the others, we really felt confident they would do the best job - and we were right. From start to finish they were extremely courteous and respectful of our home, from the extensive prep work up until the finishing touches. Unlike the other painters that quoted us, Nolan painting spray paints the cabinets. They take off the doors to spray at their shop and spray everything else at the home. Compared to a hand-brushed finish - I think this is the way to go. The guys who worked on our home were good guys and very easy to work with. The finished product turned out awesome - it looks like we have all NEW kitchen cabinets!

My experience was quite good. The people who came to do work were polite and respectful. They got about their business and did a good job. When there were questions regarding color selection they were resolved quickly with no fuss. I especially appreciated the supervisory oversight both from the lead hand and the supervisor who visited the job every day. One thing, they did not complete all the work on the deck. They left an area above the lower deck unpainted. I didn't notice it until this weekend. It would take about 30 to 45 minutes to complete the job.

Painting 2-story foyer and hallway. Store mixed paint incorrectly, making 200% instead of 50% color. Painters caught and corrected that before work began. Tight corners (half inch in corner between two door frames) were painted. Streaking and flat sections only visible the next day were corrected the next day by repainting one wall. Existing ceiling was white, and line transitions to walls were excellent. Fast, reliable, all around excellent. You get what you pay for.

Had ceiling in the kitchen/family room painted, average job done, nothing over the top. After they were gone noticed some minor paint mistakes, it's not a big deal but would have been nice if there was no mistakes done and for me to go and have to fix them. Some splotching of the ceiling paint on the walls in the bedroom. They did cover the kitchen area very well. They were nice and friendly.

After using Nolan Painting for over 20 years I had a very bad experience at 201 Danor Court. Very sloppy painting- little regard for the few items that were stored in the house (it was truly vacant) Didn't complete the painting of the garage until I registered a complaint. Broke a curtain rod in the kitchen and said it would be replaced. I REPLACED IT. Damaged a traverse rod and tried to say it was that way when they arrived to paint. ABSOLUTELY not true. Broke a lamp when they shoved all the items on the floor into the bath shower. We had to replace a kitchen sink disposal after your men left. It worked perfectly prior to your men painting. I cannot positively say your man was responsible but he was the last to clean brushes in that sink. They took down shelving to paint and never put the shelving back up. They also left the extra paint in the basement which was O.K. with me except for the fact they left a FULL 5 Gal. container of paint which I would like someone to pick up. What a waste of $.

This painting company is second to none! They are professional, courteous, clean, and their attention to detail works well with our own fastidiousness. They listen to all concerns and changes and address them in a timely manner. I have never met or spoken with an employee who was not helpful in every way. This may sound too good to be true, but it isn't because the company owner believes in quality and both customer and employee appreciation.

Nolan did a decent job both times I called them. The sales process was quick and easy, pricing was clear and fair, they were prompt EVERY time they had to visit, and were thoroughly communicative. So, operationally they are far and away better than anyone other contractor I have used for pretty much any other job! :-). Where they fell a little short was in execution. For the exterior work, it looked as though the paint wasn't thoroughly scraped everywhere. Since we have lead paint, I was concerned about getting the loose chips off and encapsulating the old paint under layers of new. It may be fine, but time will tell if the exterior trim starts to chip again in a year or two. Plus, there was rotten wood on the garage. Rather than suggesting a carpenter come and replace it, they just painted over it and told me about it. Meh. Inside, we had them do a nursery. They had to repair the plaster walls, sheet rock a closet, and paint the walls and ceiling. The paint/plaster work and whatnot was great! The painting was thorough and even. But, some paint, joint compound, and plaster were all over the floor boards and trim. It wasn't left clean. There was still paint dust and plaster all over the place. I even ended up painting the trim myself so that I could cover up the paint drips. I know they tried to clean, but was a poor job. And, again, since we have lead paint, I really made it clear how important it was to make sure that lead dust wasn't left all over the place. Needless to say, I spent several hours cleaning, vacuuming, and washing the plaster off of the moulding. In the end, it was worth the work to know that it was cleaned to my liking. It's just that last taste in my mouth was bitter even though they did a very professional job otherwise.

Despite snow, ice, and frigid weather, the painters were here every day on time! They did an excellent job in a completely professional manner. Except for the fact that furniture needed to be moved to enable them to paint, one would never know at the end of the day that they had been here. All work materials were carefully stored out of the way; all debris from the day's work was removed and the house was clean. After the most professional and articulate care and skill in painting fifty-four windows, three sets of french doors, ten columns, three outside doors, plus roof over hang and a two car garage with windows and other "fixes", my 80 year old stone Georgian house look like a dream house from a Hollywood movie.

Very pleased with the paint job. The crew was extremely neat and thorough. They showed up when they said they would show up and we're done when they said they'd be done. My only complaint is I took off all of the faceplates to the electrical outlets and my screwdriver was left on the couch. When they were cleaning up the screwdriver must of got caught in the tarps and was thrown away.

Had high expectations based on great reviews and Nolan delivered throughout entire process. We had exterior painting done, new shutters and replacement of damaged fascia and soffit trim. Started with thorough explanation of things with Jim the estimator. Declan went above and beyond with quality carpentry work. And Julio and team did a super quality painting job after thorough powerwashing and prep. All were very friendly to deal with and paid attention to detail. Highly recommend them.

While the estimate to paint out house was a bit higher than other contractors we had more confidence in what Nolan said they would do and why. The crew was friendly, started on time and did an excellent job including clean-up. The first day was a bit windy so the paint was uneven - the next day they fixed this no questions asked. They did such an good job (the paint is the best) we asked them to come back and do the porch and garage. While this was not in our budget the house looked so good the porch and garage stood out like a sore thumb! I would have no hesitation recommending Nolan to family or friends and would use them again when needed.

I am very happy with my newly painted kitchen! Each member of the crew was courteous. The primary painter cleaned up after the first day's work so I could move about the kitchen without worrying about bumping into materials. On the second day, I was given a folder with the final invoice. I was unsure about paying the balance, so I gave a check to the painter. I received an email requesting payment, so I was concerned the payment reaching the office. I would have preferred if payment options were spelled out to me during the process.

Jon, my estimator said the shutters would be taking to the shop and repaired as best as possible. They are sagging and he said they would be supported in the back. Nothing was done to them in the shop but paint. I still maintain that different painters were sent because we live in Philadelphia. They pried the windows open and ruined them on the inside. They were repaired but for a company of your "reputation" I was surprised and disappointed. Brian was sent back to repair and fix some of the horrible painting where the wood was not properly prepped. We need touchups done but frankly I'm not up to facing your company. Generally speaking, I feel I made a horrible mistake trusting you.

Nolan Painting provided excellent service starting with the estimate right through to completion of the job. They were flexible and able to separate the interior and exterior parts of the job to accommodate my daughter's wedding. Once the job started, there were a few issues which came up - matching paint colors to existing paint and some rotted wood trim on the exterior - which we were able to resolve without any delay to the job. Julio and his crew worked outside during the hottest week of the summer - long hours and no relief from the heat. The house looks great and I will definitely have you back when we are ready for the next areas inside the house.
